

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Brian Keith Allison

Brian Keith Allison, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 5, 1979, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, for the crime of transporting or selling a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on September 3, 1982, having completed his sentence.

Brian Keith Allison has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Barbara, an order dated September 20, 2004, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Brian Keith Allison has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Brian Keith Allison a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Roderick Alvarez

Roderick Alvarez a resident of Ohio, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 6, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of transporting or selling marijuana. He served three years probation. He was discharged on January 6, 1986, having completed his sentence.

Roderick Alvarez has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Roderick Alvarez has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Roderick Alvarez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Bruce Anderson

Bruce Anderson a resident of Washington, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 30, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of planting or cultivating marijuana. He served three years probation. He was discharged on March 30, 1986, having completed his sentence.

Bruce Anderson has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Bruce Anderson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Bruce Anderson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Reginald Anderson

Reginald Anderson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 6, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. He served three years in Patton State Hospital. He was discharged on September 8, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Reginald Anderson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated January 28, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Anderson reports that he currently works as a substance abuse counselor. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Reginald Anderson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Reginald Anderson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

David Ashburn

David Ashburn a resident of Florida, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 18, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Shasta, for the crime of driving under the influence with priors. He served seven months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on November 22, 1993, having completed his sentence.

David Ashburn has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Ashburn reports that he has been clean and sober for more than twenty years.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Ashburn has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Ashburn a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Patricia Ayala

Patricia Ayala, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about October 15, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. She served seven months prison, and one year, one month parole. She was discharged on July 6, 1998, having completed her sentence.

Patricia Ayala has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, an order dated September 29, 2014, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Patricia Ayala has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Patricia Ayala a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Cordell Henry Bailey

Cordell Henry Bailey, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 6, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation. He was discharged on December 21, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Cordell Henry Bailey has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated May 16, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Cordell Henry Bailey has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Cordell Henry Bailey a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Gregory Baker

Gregory Baker, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 19, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of taking a vehicle without owner's consent, receiving known stolen property, and kidnapping. He served two years, nine months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on January 8, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Gregory Baker has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated February 5, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gregory Baker has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gregory Baker a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Richard Ellsworth Baker

Richard Ellsworth Baker, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 16, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of perjury, and possession of a birth or baptism certificate to deceive. Specifically, Mr. Baker obtained fraudulent identification to work at a nightclub despite being underage, and offered to assist another individual in obtaining fraudulent identification as well. He served one year probation. He was discharged on October 16, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Richard Ellsworth Baker has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated November 17, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Baker reports that he helps organize a charitable car show to raise funds for a local food bank. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Richard Ellsworth Baker has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California do hereby grant to Richard Ellsworth Baker a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Randy Allen Balmer

Randy Allen Balmer, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 19, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of receiving stolen property, and forgery. Specifically, Mr. Balmer forged a bill of sale and certificate of title for a car he had stolen. He served seven months probation, five months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on November 26, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Randy Allen Balmer has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated July 14, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Balmer reports that he is clean and sober and that he motorcycles with a group that supports wounded veterans and others. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Randy Allen Balmer has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Randy Allen Balmer a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Richard Bradeen

Richard Bradeen a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 30, 2001, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of vandalism. Specifically, Mr. Bradeen and his friends broke several store-front windows at a local mall. He served three years probation, and 150 days jail. He was discharged on March 30, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Richard Bradeen has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Bradeen reports that he is active with the Oregon National Guard and received the Meritorious Service Medal while on active duty in Afghanistan.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Richard Bradeen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Richard Bradeen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Timothy Wayne Brooks

Timothy Wayne Brooks, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 17, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Calaveras, for the crime of transporting or selling marijuana. He served two years, nine months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on December 21, 1982, having completed his sentence.

Timothy Wayne Brooks has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Calaveras, an order dated January 07, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Timothy Wayne Brooks has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Timothy Wayne Brooks a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Mark Allen Bryan

Mark Allen Bryan, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 24, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crime of burglary, and attempted burglary. Specifically, Mr. Bryan stole items from a pawn shop. He served one year, ten months in California Youth Authority, and one year parole. He was discharged on September 27, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Mark Allen Bryan has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated January 11, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Mark Allen Bryan has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Mark Allen Bryan a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Dwight Castimore

Dwight Castimore a resident of Minnesota, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 31, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Napa, for the crime of driving under the influence causing bodily injury. He served eight months prison, and eleven months parole. He was discharged on November 17, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Dwight Castimore has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Castimore reports that he has been clean and sober for more than twenty years.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dwight Castimore has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dwight Castimore a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Sandra Choate (Coleman)

Sandra Choate (Coleman) a resident of Texas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about September 12, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, for the crime of forgery, and burglary. Specifically, Ms. Choate forged a check in order to fraudulently purchase an automobile. She served eight months prison, and three years parole. She was discharged on May 27, 1999, having completed her sentence.

Sandra Choate (Coleman) has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Choate reports that she is active with her church and the American Legion.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Sandra Choate (Coleman) has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Sandra Choate (Coleman) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Barry Cohen

Barry Cohen a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 15, 1981, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of transporting or selling marijuana. He served three years probation, and 19 days jail. He was discharged on July 15, 1984, having completed his sentence.

Barry Cohen has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Barry Cohen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Barry Cohen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Tommy Collins

Tommy Collins a resident of Iowa, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 16, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, for the crime of arson of structure or forest land. He served one year, one month prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on October 2, 1987, having completed his sentence

Tommy Collins has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Collins reports that he is active in his church.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Tommy Collins has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Tommy Collins a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Patrick Joseph Counts

Patrick Joseph Counts, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 21, 1985, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Counts took a golf cart without permission, which he damaged while driving. He served five years probation. He was discharged on June 21, 1990, having completed his sentence

Patrick Joseph Counts has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, an order dated May 01, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Counts reports that he is active in his church and volunteers with a group that works with therapy dogs. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Patrick Joseph Counts has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Patrick Joseph Counts a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Aaron Craig

Aaron Craig a resident of Montana, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 23, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Lassen, for the crime of driving under the influence causing bodily injury. He served five months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on March 24, 1995, having completed his sentence.

Aaron Craig has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Craig reports that he has been sober for more than fifteen years.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Aaron Craig has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Aaron Craig a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Michelle Cross

Michelle Cross, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about March 27, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale, and transporting a controlled substance. She served three years probation, and 180 days jail. She was discharged on March 27, 1995, having completed her sentence.

Michelle Cross has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated June 27, 2014, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Michelle Cross has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Michelle Cross a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Thomas Danieli

Thomas Danieli a resident of New York, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about December 14, 1965, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of manslaughter. Specifically, Mr. Danieli hit a car when attempting to pass another vehicle, killing the passenger in his car and the other driver. He served three years probation. He was discharged on January 4, 1969, having completed his sentence.

Thomas Danieli has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Danieli reports that he worked as a probation officer for more than 25 years.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Thomas Danieli has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Thomas Danieli a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

John DeLude

John DeLude a resident of Michigan, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 4, 1980, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of planting or cultivating marijuana. He served one year, three months prison. He was discharged on October 4, 1981, having completed his sentence.

John DeLude has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John DeLude has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John DeLude a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Bryan Di Pane

Bryan Di Pane a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 4, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of transporting or selling a controlled substance. He served three years probation. He was discharged on November 4, 1986, having completed his sentence.

Bryan Di Pane has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Bryan Di Pane has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Bryan Di Pane a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Christine Diaz

Christine Diaz a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about January 27, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of attempted voluntary manslaughter, and burglary. Specifically, Ms. Diaz broke into a pizza restaurant and threatened the victim with a sharp instrument. She served one year, nine months California Youth Authority, and three years parole. She was discharged on January 27, 1999, having completed her sentence.

Christine Diaz has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Diaz reports that she works with a group that helps terminally ill children and volunteers her DJ services to help the less fortunate.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Christine Diaz has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Christine Diaz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Dirk Martin Davis

Dirk Martin Davis, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 4, 1979, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of burglary. He served one year, and two months probation. On or about November 20, 1980 he was sentenced in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of grand theft auto. He served one year, three months prison, and two years, two months parole. He was discharged on February 18, 1985, having completed his sentence.

Dirk Martin Davis has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated November 26, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Davis's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended him for a pardon on May 19, 2015. Mr. Davis also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on July 23, 2015, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dirk Martin Davis has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dirk Martin Davis a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Robert John Downey Jr.

Robert John Downey Jr., a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 6, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance, carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle with a prior conviction, driving under the influence with priors, and use or under the influence of a controlled substance. He served two years, eight months probation, one year, three months prison, and two years parole. He was discharged on December 17, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Robert John Downey Jr. has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 20, 2015, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert John Downey Jr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert John Downey Jr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Geoffrey Lee Drake

Geoffrey Lee Drake, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 7, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of purchasing a controlled substance for sale, and possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on October 7, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Geoffrey Lee Drake has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 24, 2002, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Geoffrey Lee Drake has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Geoffrey Lee Drake a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Edward Joseph Eichhorn

Edward Joseph Eichhorn, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 4, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of criminal conspiracy. He served four years probation. He was discharged on February 15, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Edward Joseph Eichhorn has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated June 15, 1995, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Edward Joseph Eichhorn has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Edward Joseph Eichhorn a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Fredis Flores

Fredis Flores a resident of Missouri, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 4, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Flores was involved in the theft of several handbags. He served one year prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on June 30, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Fredis Flores has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Flores reports that he is the pastor of his church and is involved with many charities, including a group that provides meals to the sick and elderly.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Fredis Flores has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Fredis Flores a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Virgil Foster

Virgil Foster a resident of Arkansas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 13, 1964, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Foster stole candy and cigarettes from a cart. He served 30 days jail. He was discharged on March 13, 1964, having completed his sentence.

Virgil Foster has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Virgil Foster has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Virgil Foster a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Dino Franchino

Dino Franchino a resident of Washington, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 24, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale, and possession, manufacturing or selling a dangerous weapon. He served three years probation, and three days jail. He was discharged on September 24, 1987, having completed his sentence.

Dino Franchino has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Dino Franchino has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Dino Franchino a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Muna V. Francis

Muna V. Francis, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about December 4, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of force or assault with a deadly weapon, not firearm. She served four years, four months in California Youth Authority, and three years parole. She was discharged on April 3, 2003, having completed her sentence.

Muna V. Francis has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated January 23, 2008, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Francis reports that she is active in her church's outreach program, and was recognized by the California Assembly for her academic success at Long Beach City College. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Muna V. Francis has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Muna V. Francis a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Errol Dale Frazier

Errol Dale Frazier, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 16, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of false or fraudulent insurance claims, grand theft, false workers compensation insurance claims, and bribery to commit insurance fraud. Specifically, Mr. Frazier fraudulently billed for rehabilitative services to insurance companies for work that was not performed. He served three years, eight months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on August 26, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Errol Dale Frazier has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated January 22, 2015, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Frazier owns his own business that helps social workers find employment, and provided support as a volunteer to youth at a middle school. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Errol Dale Frazier has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Errol Dale Frazier a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Randee Deane Gaines

Randee Deane Gaines, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 1, 1984, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served nine months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on May 1, 1985, having completed his sentence.

Randee Deane Gaines has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated November 19, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Randee Deane Gaines has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Randee Deane Gaines a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Roy Gallup

Roy Gallup a resident of Montana, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 22, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of burglary. Specifically, Mr. Gallup stole clocks and other items from a warehouse. He served five years probation, and 240 days jail. He was discharged on August 22, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Roy Gallup has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Gallup reports that he volunteers with organizations benefitting wounded warriors and families in need.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Roy Gallup has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Roy Gallup a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Henry Moses Gembitz

Henry Moses Gembitz, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 1, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Gembitz stole $20 from a convenience store. He served three years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on July 1, 1985, having completed his sentence.

Henry Moses Gembitz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated July 2, 1992, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Henry Moses Gembitz has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Henry Moses Gembitz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Selene Gentry

Selene Gentry a resident of Georgia, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about September 15, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Amador, for the crime of bringing a narcotic or alcohol into a prison or jail. She served three years probation, and 60 days jail. She was discharged on September 18, 1999, having completed her sentence.

Selene Gentry has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Selene Gentry has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Selene Gentry a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Daniel Gill

Daniel Gill a resident of Texas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 16, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance and a loaded firearm, transporting or selling a controlled substance, and possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served two years probation, and six months jail. He was discharged on June 16, 1997, having completed his sentence.

Daniel Gill has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Daniel Gill has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon:

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Daniel Gill a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Maricela Gomez-Yanez

Maricela Gomez-Yanez a resident of Missouri, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about December 4, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of accessory after the fact. She served ten months prison, and three years parole. She was discharged on November 17, 2000, having completed her sentence.

Maricela Gomez-Yanez has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. She has shown that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Gomez-Yanez reports that she volunteers her time in helping families in need build their own homes, and with a community advocacy group focused on multicultural values and traditions.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Maricela Gomez-Yanez has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Maricela Gomez-Yanez a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Edward Alan Greenly

Edward Alan Greenly, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 15, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of grand theft, grand theft of money, labor or property, and violation of corporate securities law. He served four years, eleven months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on January 1 2003, having completed his sentence.

Edward Alan Greenly has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated June 29, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Edward Alan Greenly has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Edward Alan Greenly a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jeffrey Scott Guinn Sr.

Jeffrey Scott Guinn Sr., a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 21, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tulare, for the crime of transporting or selling a controlled substance. He served three years probation and 108 days jail. He was discharged on June 21, 1986, having completed his sentence.

Jeffrey Scott Guinn Sr. has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, an order dated March 10, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jeffrey Scott Guinn Sr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jeffrey Scott Guinn Sr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

James Guynn

James Guynn a resident of Ohio, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 1, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Mr. Guynn lied on an application for a driver's license. He served two years probation, and one day jail. He was discharged on July 1, 2000, having completed his sentence.

James Guynn has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Guynn has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Guynn a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Victor Nevarez Guzman

Victor Nevarez Guzman, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 10, 1979, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Guzman stole $340 from two individuals. He served ten months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on March 8, 1981, having completed his sentence.

Victor Nevarez Guzman has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated April 3, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Guzman reports that he volunteers with individuals who are developmentally disabled. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Victor Nevarez Guzman has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California; by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Victor Nevarez Guzman a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Raymond Hale

Raymond Hale a resident of Virginia, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 25, 1963, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of grand theft. He served two years probation, and six months jail. He was discharged on March 17, 1965, having completed his sentence.

Raymond Hale has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Raymond Hale has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Raymond Hale a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Amos Hathway

Amos Hathway a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 25, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years probation, and six months electronic monitoring. He was discharged on September 25, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Amos Hathway has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Amos Hathway has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Amos Hathway a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Terry Jackson

Terry Jackson a resident of Texas, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 15, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 90 days jail. He was discharged on October 15, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Terry Jackson has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Terry Jackson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Terry Jackson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Randy Scott Johnson

Randy Scott Johnson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 13, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mono, for the crime of burglary, and grand theft. Specifically, Mr. Johnson appears to have stolen electronics from houses he was hired to clean. He served five years probation, and one year jail. He was discharged on May 13, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Randy Scott Johnson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mono, an order dated September 8, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Johnson reports that he has volunteered for youth football and with his local school district. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Randy Scott Johnson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Randy Scott Johnson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

James L. Jones

James L. Jones, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 9, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of perjury. Specifically, Mr. Jones falsely informed the Department of Motor Vehicles he had completed traffic school in order to reinstate his driver's license. He served three years probation. He was discharged on September 9, 2001, having completed his sentence.

James L. Jones has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated September 11, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James L. Jones has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James L. Jones a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Basak Julia Kanlilar-Ruiz

Basak Julia Kanlilar-Ruiz, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about June 3, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of burglary. She served six months in California Youth Authority, and one year parole. She was discharged on February 12, 2001, having completed her sentence.

Basak Julia Kanlilar-Ruiz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated October 16, 2014, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Kanlilar-Ruiz reports that she is employed as a Registered Nurse and has volunteered with several organizations. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Basak Julia Kanlilar-Ruiz has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Basak Julia Kanlilar-Ruiz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Kerry Keepers

Kerry Keepers a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 6, 1990, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on June 6, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Kerry Keepers has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Kerry Keepers has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Kerry Keepers a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Joshua King

Joshua King a resident of Ohio, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 22, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 72 days jail. He was discharged on August 21, 2000, having completed his sentence.

Joshua King has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joshua King has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joshua King a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Donna Kosanovich

Donna Kosanovich, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about August 25, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance, possession of controlled substance paraphernalia, and use or under the influence of a controlled substance. She served three years probation, and one year jail. She was discharged on August 25, 2003, having completed her sentence.

Donna Kosanovich has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated November 17, 2014, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Donna Kosanovich has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Donna Kosanovich a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Nathan Kraemer

Nathan Kraemer a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 6, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Kraemer and two accomplices robbed several hotels. He served one year, three months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on January 1, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Nathan Kraemer has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Nathan Kraemer has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Nathan Kraemer a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Joseph Blaise Lidwell

Joseph Blaise Lidwell, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 23, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Nevada, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served three years probation. He was discharged on December 23, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Joseph Blaise Lidwell has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Nevada, an order dated September 11, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Joseph Blaise Lidwell has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Joseph Blaise Lidwell a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Stephen Ling

Stephen Ling a resident of Oregon, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 30, 1993, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Lassen, for the crime of transporting or selling marijuana. He served six months probation, six months jail, one year, one month California Youth Authority, and three years, five months parole. He was discharged on November 19, 1999, having completed his sentence.

Stephen Ling has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Stephen Ling has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Stephen Ling a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jerry Vic Locanas

Jerry Vic Locanas, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about December 2, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 90 days jail. He was discharged on December 2, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Jerry Vic Locanas has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated April 23, 2015, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jerry Vic Locanas has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jerry Vic Locanas a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Luke Lonberger

Luke Lonberger, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 26, 2002, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of selling or furnishing marijuana. He served three years probation, and five months jail. He was discharged on April 26, 2005, having completed his sentence.

Luke Lonberger has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated November 18, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Luke Lonberger has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Luke Lonberger a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Terrence Anthony Magee

Terrence Anthony Magee, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 17, 1989, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of driving under the influence causing bodily injury. He served two years probation, six months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on November 25, 1992, having completed his sentence.

Terrence Anthony Magee has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated May 21, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Magee reports that he has been sober since 1989 and donates to children's charities. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Terrence Anthony Magee has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Terrence Anthony Magee a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Robert John Mahoney

Robert John Mahoney, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about December 28, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, for the crime of arson of structure or forest land, and causing fire of structure or forest land. Specifically, Mr. Mahoney was present while another man set grass fires. He served five years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on December 28, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Robert John Mahoney has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, an order dated January 12, 2015, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Mahoney reports that he is active in his church and works as a climate researcher. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert John Mahoney has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert John Mahoney a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Aaron Devary Malloy

Aaron Devary Malloy, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about October 3, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, for the crime of robbery. He served five years, seven months in prison, and two years parole. He was discharged on June 21, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Aaron Devary Malloy has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento, an order dated August 13, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Malloy obtained his bachelor's degree from the University of California, Berkeley, and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Southern California. He was a co-founder of a company that created environmentally conscious jobs for individuals who were formerly incarcerated. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Aaron Devary Malloy, has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Aaron Devary Malloy a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 26 day of August 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Christopher Donald Mangold

Christopher Donald Mangold, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 3, 2001, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and 90 days jail. He was discharged on August 3, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Christopher Donald Mangold has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Bernardino, an order dated July 10, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Christopher Donald Mangold has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Christopher Donald Mangold a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Noah Eugene Masterson

Noah Eugene Masterson, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 25, 1953, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Joaquin, for the crime of vehicle theft. On or about August 3, 1954, he was sentenced in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tuolumne, for the crime of escape. He served two years prison concurrently. He was discharged on August 5, 1956, having completed his sentence.

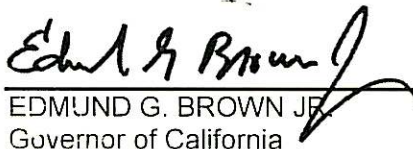

Noah Eugene Masterson has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sacramento an order dated May 23, 1979, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Masterson's pardon application and related materials pursuant to California Penal Code section 4802, and recommended him for a pardon in 1982. Mr. Masterson also received a recommendation for a pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received on December 6, 1982, as required by article V, section 8 subdivision (a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Noah Eugene Masterson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Noah Eugene Masterson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

AT TEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

David Warren McBath

David Warren McBath, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 28, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 120 days jail. He was discharged on May 27, 1994, having completed his sentence.

David Warren McBath has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Tehama, an order dated April 1, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Warren McBath has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Warren McBath a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Mark Moreno

Mark Moreno a resident of Arizona, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 21, 1981, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of transporting or selling a controlled substance. He served two months probation, and 60 days weekend jail. He was discharged on November 13, 1981, having completed his sentence.

Mark Moreno has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Mark Moreno has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Mark Moreno a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Darrell Munson

Darrell Munson a resident of Utah, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 24, 1969, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of grand theft. He served one year, ten months prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on June 9, 1972, having completed his sentence.

Darrell Munson has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Munson reports that he has been clean and sober for 44 years.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Darrell Munson has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Darrell Munson a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Robert Mustain

Robert Mustain, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 11, 1997, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kings, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served one year, five months probation, two years prison, and two years, six months parole. He was discharged on November 2, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Robert Mustain has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kings, an order dated May 1, 2009, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert Mustain has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert Mustain a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Noe Nava (Deniz)

Noe Nava (Deniz) a resident of Mexico, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about February 22, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kings, for the crime of carjacking. Specifically, Mr. Nava threatened the victim with a BB gun and stole his car. He served two years, four months prison, and four years, five months parole. He was discharged on August 4, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Noe Nava (Deniz) has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Noe Nava (Deniz) has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Noe Nava (Deniz) a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Robert Olsen

Robert Olsen, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 2, 1971, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Francisco, for the crime of assault with a deadly weapon or force possibly causing great bodily injury. He served three years probation. He was discharged on April 2, 1974, having completed his sentence.

Robert Olsen has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Contra Costa, an order dated April 25, 2005, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Olsen reports that he has counseled juvenile offenders in group homes and volunteers with a nonprofit that provides legal services. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Robert Olsen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Robert Olsen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Vernon Rice Owen

Vernon Rice Owen, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency

He was sentenced on or about July 9, 1996, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of possession of a firearm by a felon, possession of prohibited ammunition, and use or under the influence of a controlled substance. He served two years, three months probation, and six months jail. He was discharged on October 30, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Vernon Rice Owen has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated January 28, 2008, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Vernon Rice Owen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Vernon Rice Owen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Daniel Owens

Daniel Owens a resident of Iowa, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 27, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Kern, for the crime of robbery. Specifically, Mr. Owens' was aware of a friend's plan to rob a convenience store and intended to receive a share of the money from the robbery. He served one year, six months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on August 6, 2004, having completed his sentence.

Daniel Owens has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Daniel Owens has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Daniel Owens a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Steven Raia

Steven Raia, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 6, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Placer, for the crime of planting or cultivating marijuana. He served three years probation, and 45 days jail. He was discharged on March 6, 2003, having completed his sentence.

Steven Raia has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated July 17, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Steven Raia has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Steven Raia a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the
Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jonathan Tecson Reyes

Jonathan Tecson Reyes, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency

He was sentenced on or about February 18, 2003, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Solano, for the crime of possession of ephedrine with the intent to manufacture a controlled substance. He served one year, two months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on April 12, 2005, having completed his sentence.

Jonathan Tecson Reyes has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated April 11, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jonathan Tecson Reyes has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jonathan Tecson Reyes a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

John Phillip Rockhill

John Phillip Rockhill, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about September 30, 1976, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of robbery. He served two years, two months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on December 14, 1979, having completed his sentence.

John Phillip Rockhill has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated June 20, 1986, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Rockhill volunteers for community and health organizations. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, John Phillip Rockhill has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to John Phillip Rockhill a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jose Luis Rodriguez Jr.

Jose Luis Rodriguez Jr., a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 23, 2000, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Fresno, for the crime of transporting a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance for sale, and conspiracy to commit a crime. He served one year, four months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on November 14, 2002, having completed his sentence.

Jose Luis Rodriguez Jr. has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Fresno, an order dated June 23, 2010, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jose Luis Rodriguez Jr. has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jose Luis Rodriguez Jr. a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Maynard Rossen

Maynard Rossen a resident of Oklahoma, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about November 23, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served one year, eight months probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on August 21, 1990, having completed his sentence.

Maynard Rossen has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Maynard Rossen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Maynard Rossen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Diane Saunders

Diane Saunders, a resident of Minnesota, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about July 7, 1972, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of arson. She served three years, eleven months prison, and two years parole. She was discharged on July 1, 1978, having completed her sentence.

Diane Saunders has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Luis Obispo, an order dated February 25, 1983, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Saunders reports that she has volunteered for a federal disaster medical assistance team for the past decade. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Diane Saunders has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Diane Saunders a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Andrew Schwartz

Andrew Schwartz, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about January 26, 1970, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of selling marijuana to a minor. He served one year, ten months probation. He was discharged on October 18, 1971, having completed his sentence.

Andrew Schwartz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated September 2, 1994, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Andrew Schwartz has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Andrew Schwartz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jonathon Sells

Jonathon Sells a resident of Ohio, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about December 14, 1988, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance for sale. He served three years probation, and 180 days jail. He was discharged on December 14, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Jonathon Sells has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jonathon Sells has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jonathon Sells a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Mohamed Zafar Shalizi

Mohamed Zafar Shalizi, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 29, 1976, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served 16 days jail. He was discharged on July 29, 1981, having completed his sentence.

Mohamed Zafar Shalizi has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Indio, an order dated January 17, 1989, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Mohamed Zafar Shalizi has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Mohamed Zafar Shalizi a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Melvin Shaw

Melvin Shaw, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 11, 1986, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Monterey, for the crime of insufficient funds checks. He served three years probation, one year, three months prison, and one year, eleven months parole. He was discharged on October 24, 1991, having completed his sentence.

Melvin Shaw has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Monterey, an order dated June 6, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Shaw reports that he has donated to charities including the United Way and the Children's Miracle Network. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Melvin Shaw has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Melvin Shaw a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Randle Starbuck

Randle Starbuck a resident of Mississippi, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about March 24, 1992, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of receiving known stolen property. He served eight months prison, and one year parole. He was discharged on January 3, 1994, having completed his sentence.

Randle Starbuck has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Randle Starbuck has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Randle Starbuck a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Jeffrey Scott Swank

Jeffrey Scott Swank, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 11, 1995, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Napa, for the crime of possession of a controlled substance. He served three years probation, and 190 days jail. He was discharged on April 11, 1998, having completed his sentence.

Jeffrey Scott Swank has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Napa, an order dated September 9, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Jeffrey Scott Swank has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Jeffrey Scott Swank a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

James Robert Taylor

James Robert Taylor, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 12, 1999, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, for the crime of driving under the influence with injury. He served nine months prison, and three years parole. He was discharged on June 5, 2003, having completed his sentence.

James Robert Taylor has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Butte, an order dated August 23, 2007, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Taylor reports that he is active with an organization supporting students interested in agriculture, and other community meetings. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, James Robert Taylor has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to James Robert Taylor a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

David Earl Thiessen

David Earl Thiessen, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about August 7, 1978, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Siskiyou, for the crime of assault with a deadly weapon on a peace officer or fireman. Specifically, a police officer was called to settle a family dispute, and Mr. Thiessen's gun discharged into the ground while he was speaking with the officer. He served two years probation, and ten days jail. He was discharged on August 7, 1980, having completed his sentence.

David Earl Thiessen has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Sierra, an order dated August 22, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Thiessen reports that he is committed to maintaining his sobriety. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, David Earl Thiessen has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to David Earl Thiessen a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Autumn Shoivhon Washington

Autumn Shoivhon Washington, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about February 13, 2001, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of robbery. She served three years probation, and 180 days jail. She was discharged on February 13, 2004, having completed her sentence.

Autumn Shoivhon Washington has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated May 26, 2011, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Indeed, Ms. Washington reports that she volunteers as a middle school teaching assistant, a cheerleading coach, and a Sunday school teacher. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Autumn Shoivhon Washington has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Autumn Shoivhon Washington a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Gary Williams

Gary Williams a resident of Nevada, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 27, 1982, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Benito, for the crime of planting or cultivating marijuana. He served three years probation. He was discharged on April 27, 1985, having completed his sentence.

Gary Williams has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Gary Williams has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Gary Williams a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

George Wright

George Wright a resident of New Hampshire, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 20, 1965, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of San Diego, for the crime of taking a vehicle without owner consent. He served four years probation. He was discharged on May 20, 1969, having completed his sentence.

George Wright has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen. Indeed, Mr. Wright reports that he is active in the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and other community groups.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, George Wright has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to George Wright a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

William Wylie

William Wylie a resident of Washington, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 17, 1965, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Rosa, for the crime of forgery. Specifically, Mr. Wylie altered an $8 money order and cashed it for $80. He served one year, six months prison, and one year, six months parole. He was discharged on June 17, 1968, having completed his sentence.

William Wylie has submitted to this office a formal application for executive clemency in the form of a gubernatorial pardon. He has shown that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law abiding citizen.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, William Wylie has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to William Wylie a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense, including the right to own, possess, and keep a firearm to the extent permitted by California Penal Code Section 4854.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Ronald Frederick Young

Ronald Frederick Young, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about May 14, 1975, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Stanislaus, for the crime of possession of marijuana for sale. He served two years probation, and four months jail. He was discharged on May 14, 1977, having completed his sentence.

Ronald Frederick Young has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Mariposa, an order dated June 16, 2011, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Ronald Frederick Young has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Ronald Frederick Young a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

William Aaron Zigler

William Aaron Zigler, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about April 19, 1994, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Ventura, for the crime of transporting or selling a controlled substance, transporting or selling marijuana, possession of marijuana for sale, and possession or purchase of a controlled substance for sale. He served four years, seven months probation. He was discharged on December 17, 1998, having completed his sentence.

William Aaron Zigler has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated August 2, 2013, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, William Aaron Zigler has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to William Aaron Zigler a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State

Executive Department

State of California

PARDON

Drew Scott Zitzke

Drew Scott Zitzke, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about July 7, 1998, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, for the crime of manufacturing a controlled substance, and causing a fire of an inhabited structure or property. He served two years prison, and one year, one month parole. He was discharged on August 30, 2001, having completed his sentence.

Drew Scott Zitzke has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby a person may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Riverside, an order dated June 5, 2014, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. By granting the Certificate of Rehabilitation, the court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Drew Scott Zitzke has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Drew Scott Zitzke a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th Day of December, 2015.

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor of California

ATTEST:

ALEX PADILLA
Secretary of State