Leo Michael Anshutz

Leo Michael Anshutz, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

He was sentenced on or about June 28, 1991, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, for the crime of transportation of cocaine and possession for sale of cocaine. He served one year in prison and one year parole. He was discharged on October 20, 1993, having completed his sentence.

Leo Michael Anshutz has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Santa Clara, an order dated March 2, 2000, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Leo Michael Anshutz has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Leo Michael Anshutz a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 23rd day of December, 2012.

Bertha Neal Fairley

Bertha Neal Fairley, a resident of California, has submitted to this office an application for executive clemency.

She was sentenced on or about February 19, 1971, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, for the crime of involuntary manslaughter. She served three years probation. She was discharged on February 19, 1974, having completed her sentence.

Bertha Neal Fairley has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. She has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Los Angeles, an order dated May 8, 2003, evidencing that since her release from custody, she has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted herself as a law-abiding citizen. Ms. Fairley is now 80 years old. The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Bertha Neal Fairley has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Bertha Neal Fairley a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

For many years now, Mr. Pfleger has been a generous and active supporter of numerous charitable and philanthropic causes, including in the areas of child welfare, substance abuse recovery, wildlife preservation, and medical research.

Thomas George Pfleger was sentenced on or about October 1, 1970, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of possession of narcotics with the intent to sell. He was discharged on October 7, 1975, having completed his sentence.

He was sentenced on or about July 21, 1976, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of robbery in the 2nd degree. He was discharged on December 16, 1981, having completed his sentence.

He was sentenced on or about May 27, 1983, in the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, for the crime of using or being under the influence of a controlled substance. He was discharged on May 27, 1986, having completed his sentence.

Mr. Pfleger has complied with the provisions of Sections 4852.01 to 4852.2, inclusive, of the Penal Code of California, which provide a procedure whereby persons may, after completion of their sentences, seek restoration of the rights of citizenship, and apply for a pardon. He has obtained from the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Orange, an order dated November 11, 2004, evidencing that since his release from custody, he has lived an honest and upright life, exhibited good moral character, and conducted himself as a law-abiding citizen. The court has recommended that he be granted a full pardon. The Board of Parole Hearings received and reviewed Mr. Pfleger's pardon application and related materials, pursuant to California Penal Code Section 4802 and recommended him for a pardon on September 18, 2012.

Mr. Pfleger also received a recommendation for pardon by a majority of the justices of the Supreme Court of California, received November 26, 2012, as required by Article V, Section 8(a) of the California Constitution.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of his sentence and good conduct in the community of his residence since his release, Thomas George Pfleger has paid his debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Thomas George Pfleger a full and unconditional pardon for the above offenses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 24th day of December, 2012.

The court has recommended that she be granted a full pardon.

By the laws of this state it is proper that I, as Governor of the State of California, give testimony that, by completion of her sentence and good conduct in the community of her residence since her release, Deborah Jo Whitney has paid her debt to society and earned a full and unconditional pardon.

THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of California, do hereby grant to Deborah Jo Whitney a full and unconditional pardon for the above offense.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 23rd day of December, 2012.
